FRUITS of WHITEFIELDISM; OR

Extracts from a PAMPHLET, entituled,—The Reſult of a Council of the conſociated Churches of the County of Windham, &c. (in NEW-ENGLAND,) January 1746-7.

As if Divinity had catch'd,
The Itch, on Purpoſe to be ſcratch'd. HUD.

THIS Council met at the Call and Deſire of the Moderator of the laſt Conſociation, to conſider of, and adviſe concerning the lamentable Diviſions, Separations, and Errors which have ariſen, and been fallen into by a great Number of profeſſing Chriſtians in this County.

There has been produced, and read to this Council a Copy of the Confeſſion of Faith, and Church Covenant, profeſs'd by the Company at Manſfield.

Extracts from the ſaid Copy.

Article 9. That GOD did out of his own meer good Pleaſure from all Eternity elect ſome to everlaſting Life, and give them to CHRIST in the Covenant of Redemption, which is the only Foundation or firſt Cauſe of the Salvation of the Saints.

13. That GOD ſo loved the World that He ſent his only begotten SON, who took on him the human Nature, lived a perfect Life on Earth, and died a curſed Death for the Elect; which made full Satisfaction for the Wrong done to the infinite Juſtice of GOD by them.

15. We believe that WE are of that Number who were Elected of GOD to eternal Life, and that CHRIST did live on Earth, die and riſe again for US in particular; and that He doth now, in the Virtue of his own Merits and Satisfacton, make Interceſſion to GOD for US; and that WE are now Juſtified in the Sight of GOD, for the ſake of CHRIST, and ſhall be owned by Him at the great and general Judgment, which GOD hath made US to believe, by ſending according to his Promiſe (John 16.) the HOLY GHOST into our Souls, who hath made a particular Application of the above Articles.

18. That all Doubting in a Believer is ſinful, being contrary to the Command of GOD and hurtful to the Soul, and an hinderance to the Performance of Duty.

19. That none can make any right Improvement of any of the Gifts of CHRIST without Faith in preſent Exerciſe; but in their Eſſays to Improve therein do Act againſt the Kingdom of CHRIST: Viewing no higher End than themſelves as their chiefeſt Good.

21. That whoever preſumes to adminiſter or partake of the Seals of the Covenant of Grace, without ſaving Faith, are guilty of Sacriledge, and are in Danger of ſealing their own Damnation.

22. That all true Believers (and none but ſuch) are Members of the Catholick Church of CHRIST, and have a Right to all the Internal and External Gifts and Privileges that CHRIST has left in his Church in this World.

Of a Church.

1. That it is a Number of True Believers by mutual Acquaintance and Communion voluntarily and underſtandingly Covenanting and Embodying together for the carrying on the Worſhip of GOD and the Adminiſtrations of the Seals of the Covenant, and Diſcipline of the Church, according to the Light that GOD has given, and ſhall hereafter give by his Spirit in His Word.

3. That true Belivers, and they only, have a Right to give up their Children to GOD in Baptiſm.

5. That the Lord's Supper was inſtituted by CHRIST, only for his Children to commemorate his Death and Sufferings which he bare for their Sins.

6. That in order to our right communing together in the Ordinances of the Goſpel, it is needful that we have a Soul-ſatisfying Knowledge, and good Scriptural Evidence, of one another's juſtified Eſtate; for if we know not our Brother, how ſhall we have a proper Exerciſe of Charity towards him?

7. That at all Times the Doors of the Church ſhould be carefully kept againſt ſuch as cannot give a ſatisfyinſt Evidence of the Work of GOD upon their Souls whereby they are united to CHRIST.

8. That if any civil Differences ſhall happen between Brethren in the Church concerning Debt, or any civil Affair, that by the civil Law lye under the Cognizance thereof; we believe that we ought not to go to Law with any of the Brethren in the ſame Covenant with us; but that all ſuch Difficulties or Differences are to be decided by the Church.

We have before us a Paper ſigned by three Witneſſes to all the following Particulars; and alſo two more to the moſt of them, teſtifying, That upon a conſiderable Acquaintance with them, eſpecially at Canterbury, and alſo ſome with them at Manſfield; they are fully ſatiſhed that great Part of them do hold.

1. That Aſſurance is of the Eſſence of Faith.

2. That the Children of GOD know one another, i.e. who are converted, and who not.

3. That there is a double Meaning to the Word of GOD, viz. a literal and a ſpiritual.

4. That an unconverted Perſon knows nothing of the true Meaning of the Scriptures.

5. That an unconverted Perſon ought not to pray till ſuch Time as he can pray in Faith.

6. That the Churches and Miniſters in the Land are Popiſh and Anti-chriſtian.

7. That the Way to know whether a Miniſter is a true Miniſter, or a Perſon a converted Perſon, is by their feeling the Preaching of the one, and the Diſcourſe of the other;

THE following Principles were proved by ſufficient Evidence, before the ſecond Church of CHRIST in Windham, to be what Deacon Thomas Marſh had here and there delivered, viz.

'That GOD is as well pleaſed with his Children ſinning, as when 'they are upon their Knees praying:' leaving it in this looſe 'Manner.—That a Child of GOD has nothing but Grace and 'Nature: Grace is GOD's Child, and that never ſins, neither is 'GOD ever angry with it; 'tis only Nature that ſins, and this 'only GOD is angry with; therefore He is never angry with his 'Children.——That Chriſtians or Believers may know one another as certainly or clearly as a Man may know a Dog from a 'Sheep: That the Command of CHRIST, Feed my Lambs, feed 'my Sheep, is abſurd, and Obedience to it impoſſible, at leaſt impracticable, without a certain Knowledge of the Lambs and 'Sheep from Dogs or Chriſtleſs Perſons.—That a Church may be 'according to GOD's Word, called a Church of Babylon, and 'condemned as ſuch, tho' viſibly clean.—That if a major Part of 'a Church are unconverted Perſons, that Church can't act for 'CHRIST, but againſt him, and ſo muſt be Antichriſt.—That we 'have a Warrant to come out from Babylon, meaning unconverted

'Perſons

" Persons. — That the Time of the Harvest spoken of Mat. 13. " when the Angels shall be sent forth to gather together, and sever, " is now come. —— That such as he and Mr. Pain, (speaking in Re- " ference to Laymen's publick Exhortings) are those other Servants " spoken of Matth. 22. 4. sent forth to invite the Guests that the " Table may be furnished.

[The Remarks will be inserted another Week.]

NEW-YORK, September 28.

By Capt. Deane, who arrived here on Saturday last, in 28 Days from Jamaica, we learn, that on the 23d of August last, two fine French Ships, Prizes, were brought into Port-Royal by his Majesty's Snow Merlin; one of which engaged her for three Glasses, wherein the Captain of the Merlin had his Right Hand shot off; but without any other Loss.

By a Letter from Antigua, of the 25th of August past, we hear, That one of our Men of War had taken a French Privateer off of Barbados, and carried her to Antigua; and that Commodore Lee had had a sort of a Trial at Antigua, but that nothing came of it, as was expected; and that he was going home for another Trial.

Last Week Col. Johnson arrived here from Albany, with nine of the Chiefs of the Six Nations of Indians, who, 'tis said, are come with a Design to know, whether the English will certainly make any Attempt on the French Settlements this Year, or not.

Yesterday the notorious Tom Bell was committed to the Jail of this City.

BOSTON, September 28.

Extract of a Letter from Louisbourg, dated Sept. 5. 1747.

"This Week has arrived almost all the Sloops and Schooners belonging to Boston, and believe they have brought all the Cattle and Sheep you have in New-England, for they are so thick in the Streets you can hardly pass for 'em; those who are concerned in 'em must be considerable Losers. —— Yesterday the Lark arrived from Newfoundland, the Captain of her is put under Confinement till there is a sufficient Number of Captains to try him. The Lark brings us an Account, that the Duke has gained a compleat Victory in Flanders, and that the old Queen of Spain has endeavoured to poison the King of Spain. — Mr. Knowles proposes to sail for Boston in the Warwick Man of War about the 20th Instant."

Extract of a Letter from an Officer on board the Schooner Spry, at Louisbourg, September 8. 1747.

We arrived here the 2d Instant, from a Cruize, in Company with his Majesty's Snow Hind, Capt. Hughes, in the Bay of Vert. On the first Instant we met with a very hard Gale of Wind at S.S.E. with thick Weather, and being not above two Leagues from the Shore, were obliged to carry Sail to keep us off the Land, the Wind blowing right on; and about 12 o'Clock the Night following, an exceeding hard Squall took us, in which we could not carry one Yard of Canvas, and in that Squall we have great Reason to believe the Hind Snow overset, by our not discovering her in the Morning, and seeing her Boat, Chests, Gratings, and many of her Things floating near us.

The Comet Bomb was in the said Squall, bound to Annapolis Royal, in which she lost her Top-Masts, and was obliged to throw all her Guns over-board.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1.

By Letters from Antigua there is Advice, that one of our Men of War has taken a French Privateer off of Barbados, and carried her into Antigua; That Capt. Burchill, in his Majesty's Ship Lyme, has had an Engagement with Garaycochea to Windward of Antigua, in which she received a great deal of Damage, and Capt. Burchill was wounded in three different Places; That Commodore Lee's Trial was over there; but that he was to be sent Home, where it was thought he would undergo another.

NEW-YORK, October 5.

By Capt. Fowle, who arrived here last Week, from Curacoa, we have Advice, that Capt. Frankland, in a 60 Gun Ship, with another English Man of War, were cruizing off that Island, and had lately chas'd three Spanish Ships ashore, on the Main, a little to Leward of Laguira, the Spaniards making their Escape on shore, with the greatest Part of their Money; and the English after plundering them, set them on Fire.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 26.

By a Vessel from Frederica, we hear, that one of the Privateers belonging to that Place has re-taken Capt. Campbell's Schooner of Port-Royal, and had an Engagement, about 3 Weeks ago, with a Spanish Privateer Brigt. of 16 Carriage Guns, that had a large Ship in Company supposed to be the European lately commanded by Capt. Wright; That the Brigt's. Sails and Rigging were all torn to Pieces, yet she escaped.

His Majesty's Ship the Adventure, Capt. Hamar, is arriv'd at Port-Royal, having lost all her Masts in the late bad Weather.

Mr. Thomas Trowell, who has been here twice before, (about 13 and 15 Years ago) is arriv'd in one of the last Ships from London, with his Lady, and we hear intends to settle in this Province.

On Saturday Evening the Rev. Mr. Whitefield arriv'd in Town from the Northward, Yesterday he preach'd here, and this Morning he set out for the Southward.
